

MEMBERSHIP

The Ananta Centre, established in December 2013, is an independent not-for-profit organisation that seeks to foster positive change in society by way of facilitating discussions and engaging the Civil Society, Inclusive of Business, NGO's, Government and other stake holders on issues of importance to India's development and National security.

Formerly part of the Aspen Institute India, the Centre provides a non-partisan platform for open dialogue and cross sector outreach for a comprehensive understanding of public policy through the means of leadership initiatives, conferences and strategic discussions.

Operating under a vast network, the Centre enables members to share their opinions and ideas with eminent national and international leaders and strives to develop an informed perspective about critical issues.

The Ananta Centre invites corporates, institutions and individuals, interested in engaging with global leaders to be members. Membership is given to individuals of all nationalities interested in various fields like education, health, science, art, culture, governance and others. It is also given to institutions such as universities, laboratories, academies, diplomatic missions, chambers of commerce, as well as other institutions in harmony with the vision and mission of the organisation.
